

Recreational Travel Quarantine Guidelines

TRAVEL MODE

Driving short distances with few stops.

Travel on airlines with precautions and restrictions in place such as every other seat and masking requirements.

Driving long distances with many stops and need to dine out.

Travel on airlines without appropriate precautions and restrictions in place.

"We're driving to our family lake house within Georgia, cooking at home, hiking and swimming."
NO QUARANTINE NEEDED

← Less Concerning

More Concerning →

TRAVEL DESTINATION

Local travel within the state or to states with lower risk of spread.

Travel to single family homes or rentals where your family will stay with others in their pod or family who are also social distancing.

Travel to areas with a high level risk of spread currently.

Travel to stay at a hotel or resort where there are many shared common areas.

"We're flying to Colorado to ski and staying at a resort there. They have good precautions in place."
QUARANTINE REQUIRED TO RETURN

← Less Concerning

More Concerning →

International Travel: Automatic Quarantine Required!

TRAVEL ACTIVITIES

Traveling to single family home or rental with plans to stay in and cook with highly social distanced activities (hiking, etc.)

Travel to a hotel in a remote area with less COVID spread, eat in lodging only and maintain social distancing.

Travel with plans to attend large family events such as weddings, family reunions, etc.

Travel to a resort in a highly touristic area and plans to engage in activities that are crowded (i.e. theme parks, ski resorts, sports arenas, etc.)

"We are visiting my elderly parents in Florida. We will be flying and going to a sparsely populated beach only"
NO QUARANTINE NEEDED

← Less Concerning

More Concerning →

Key Factors to Consider

ABILITY TO SOCIAL DISTANCE

RESTAURANTS VS. ABILITY TO DINE IN HOME OR LODGING

CROWDS/HEAVILY POPULATED

LEVEL OF SPREAD AT DESTINATION

THE SUZUKI SCHOOL
a preparatory preschool